

Should EURACT have Honorary members?

- Initiative for this proposal came from a previous council member
- Many organisations reward their members with nomination to a Honorary member
- This could be compared with universities who invite honorary professors, and we are an Academy
- Would this work as a rewarding tool for some active members in EURACT?