

Malta's Specialist Training in Family Medicine bears fruit!

July 2007: launched as result of Malta's EU membership in 2004
3-year programme, 50% in family practice with GP trainer, 50% in hospital specialities, with weekly academic group activities

Formative assessment: educational portfolio, annual appraisal

July 2010: Summative assessment: Workplace-Based Assessment, Applied Knowledge Test and Clinical Skills Assessment

All 11 participants successful & recommended for certification as Specialists in Family Medicine and Members of Malta College

August 2010: RCGP granted formal accreditation to the MMCFD postgraduate licensing examination for the MRCGP[INT]

Graduates of STPFM:
cohort 2007-10

www.stpfm.ehealth.gov.mt

Mario R Sammut, 5/11/2010

